A REQUEST FOR SQUARE POLITICS

We are now facing a great political campaign national, state and county, and more than usual interest is being manifested in local politics. While we are all keenly alive to the national and state yet it is the politics of our own county and district that interests most vitally from our close association with them. We personally know nearly all of the candidates and a personal interest is after all the keenest interest. It seems to us that at this time when the candidate is getting things lined up and laying plans for his campaign that it is a pretty good time to pause and get a few facts settled in our own minds.

Every one knows the political policies of the World, Republican first, last and all the time, Republican right or wrong! Republican till we die. When the old party goes we go with it.

Enough said, all know where WE stand, and the question now is where does the OTHER fellow stand? The owner and publisher of the Reporter, H. F. Kline, two years ago ran for representative and our readers will remember that the World as a Republican paper and supporter of Republican candidates demanded to know what the politics of the Reporter was? An evasive answer was given and we were given to understand that its policies were Democratic and that it was none of our business but it was our business for we refused to head the ticket with a man's name who was running a Democratic paper and running for the highest office in the county on the Republican ticket and asking for Republican support.

Now we are up against the same proposition again. Kline is running for representative supposedly on the Republican ticket and the old old trick that has been pulled repeatedly is again operating. Mr. Lloyd Garrison of Concordia has purchased (on supposition) the Reporter and will make a Democratic paper of it many leading Democrats subscribing to the support of the paper. The truth in the nut shell is this: Mr. Garrison has not purchased or does not own the Reporter, it is only a trick to side step certain campaign issues. Kline still owns and controls the paper. On our life we can see no reason why he should not come out on the square and tell just what his paper stands for. If it is Democratic say so, if Republican let it be known. A sham sale a few weeks before election and then the paper reverting back right after election to its old policies is a stunt that has been pulled off until the people are used to it and we cannot see how intelligent voters can be willing to support a man who has played hide and seek with politics ever since he has been in the newspaper business and in fairness to the voters of this county we ask the owner and publisher of the Reporter to come out and make a clean and open declaration of where he stands in this campaign.

"See Us at The County Fair"

Everybody Welcome

On next Wednesday, September 13, the Trego County Fair opens for three days. A lot of hard work has been done and every thing is in good shape.

The farmers of Trego county should come in and buy some shares in the fair association as it is something that should be of great interest to the farming community and the farmer should be as much or more interested in the fair than any other citizen.

The attractions are all good. The large display building is finished and is a credit to a much more thickly populated district. A good race track has been provided, good amusement companies secured, base ball games arranged for, and a general good time planned for every one. Let every one in the county plan to take a little time off and come to the fair and help to make it the biggest and most successful one Trego county has ever had.

All exhibit departments are open to every one. Bring in your grain, vegetables, live stock, poultry, fruit, flowers, fancy work, culinary articles, in fact anything that will make a nice exhibit.

Obituary — Mrs. Minnie L. Woodward

Death has again robbed our city of one of our most esteemed and valuable characters, a beloved wife, an affectionate mother, a devoted sister and an energetic worker in church, social and fraternity circles. Mrs. Minnie Woodward died at her late home on North East Eight street Abilene, Kans., September 3, 1916, leaving her husband, S. F. Woodward, and two daughters, and one son, Mrs. Irene Myers, Inglewood, Calif., Miss Frances Woodward and C. H. Woodward of Abilene to mourn her departure.

Minnie Louise Hodges was born in Lansing, Mich., January 1, 1871 and came to Kansas in 1879 with her parents and settled at Wa-Keeney and in 1889 she united in marriage with Mr. Woodward and in 1902 they came with their little family to Abilene and have grown into the activities of this community with favor and esteem.

Mrs. Woodward was a member of the Lutheran church and active in all public works. She was a member of the Fraternal Aid Union and took active part in its work. Her social and fraternal activity found a wide range in the order of the Eastern Star of which she was a past matron and a worker of most efficient character, being tireless in social and benevolent activities.

Mrs. Woodward was of a strong mind and positive convictions and when she saw a work to be performed she threw her whole soul into its performance. She was a model wife and home maker and the sympathy of the whole community goes to the bereaved family. A great loss has been sustained by the whole community as shown by the floral tributes and the large congregation assembled at the funeral services held at the home and at the Lutheran church on September 5, 1916.

The church services were conducted by the Rev. F. S. Blaney of the Presbyterian church, a long time friend of the family, and grand chaplain of Kansas, who took as a text the beautiful passage from 2 Corinthians, Chapter 1, verses 3-5, and drew from it the consolation needed in the hour of sorrow.

The Eastern Star then took charge and at the cemetery rendered the beautiful memorial services of that order. The grand matron, Mrs. Wilson of Salina had charge of the services.

Thus was laid to rest a worthy Christian woman and a long time friend of a wide circle of friends and neighbors. May the blessing of God rest upon the afflicted family and a wide circle of sorrowing friends.—Abilene Reflector.

IDA WESTON RAE

Big Show Coming Soon

Imitators have sprung up like Jonah's gourd to wither in the night like a school of minnows in the wake of the whale.

Ida Weston Rae show has stood foremost for the past ten years and the name has always been considered a positive guarantee in itself, for whenever a presentation is given by this well known company it is given in the entirety and true to the author's version. Many have visited from other shows to seek points on the way the show has made a success trying to profit by the information that they might secure; but there is no secret of the success with the Ida Weston Rae show, it is simply the honest and fair dealings with the public backed with the push and energy that has been an essential factor for the past ten years gradually making newer friends so now they are a household word.

This season Miss Rae has secured "The Musical Wilson's," a team of musical artists away above the average as a feature vaudeville act; this act has been on the larger Chautauqua circuits of the east, and after three years of hard work Miss Rae finally succeeded in securing the act. Arrangements have been made with the local manager for this well known company in the near future; look for large ad. and date.—Adv.

Wm. McAdams, an old timer of the early eighties in Trego county but now living in South Dakota, has been here for the last five days reviewing old scenes and looking up some of his friends. He says the country after thirty years' transformation is not recognizable. With Mrs. McAdams they are visiting Thomas O'Toole on the Hackberry which was once their homestead. It is very interesting to hear Mr. McAdams relate tales of early Kansas history and he has slipped one or two out which would be quite amusing if they could be sprung at this time on the boys now living here. They will return to their home next week.

Last Tuesday we unloaded another car of Chevrolet's model Four-Ninety. These are dandy little cars one of the best utility cars on the market today. All our buyers are satisfied. Come in and see them. Don't miss our half page ad. in this issue telling all about this wonderful little car. Clyde Poffenberger will leave Sunday morning for Hutchinson and will drive home a "Baby Grand" Chevrolet a handsome six passenger car one of the classiest cars seen anywhere today. It will be on exhibition at the Fair next week where it will be demonstrated. We want everybody in Trego county to see it.
